ROSS HARDEN DIES LATE LAST NIGHT

Funeral Services Friday Afternoon

Ross Harden, 81, died at 10:15 o'clock Tuesday night at the home of a son, Clyde, Decatur route 5, following a heart attack.

A lifelong resident of Adams county, he was born in Union township Sept. 15, 1871, a son of William and Jane Burrell-Harden, and was married to Nancy J. Harkless in 1896. Mrs. Harden died in 1939.

Mr. Harden was a member of the Pleasant Grove United Brethren in Christ church.

Surviving are the son; two grandchildren; six great-grandchildren, and a sister, Mrs. Leora Cassady of Bluffton. A grandson, Fred Harden, was killed in action with the U. S. Army during World War II. Four brothers and two sisters are also deceased.

Funeral services will be conducted at 1 p.m. Friday at the Black funeral home and at 1:30 p.m. at the Pleasant Grove United Brethren in Christ church, the Rev. William Ensminger officiating. Burial will be in the Decatur cemetery. Friends may call at the funeral home after 7 o'clock this evening.
