

NANCY HARTZOG DIES SUDDENLY

Aged Lady Succumbs to Attack of Hemorrhages Sunday Evening

Mrs. Nancy E. Hartzog, aged 76, died at her home 720 Elm Street, in this city, last night at nine o'clock after an illness of about a half hour. Death was due to hemorrhages. Mrs. Hartzog had been in ill health for some time, but her condition was not thought to be serious until about eight o'clock. She continued to grow worse until death relieved her.

Mrs. Hartzog was born at Willshire, Ohio, and later moved to this city. Her first husband, William Harrison preceded her in death several years ago and she was united in marriage to William Hartzog who survives. She also is survived by five children: Mrs. Ed Wiley, Cleveland; Mrs. J. A. Speck, Cleveland; Mrs. D. L. Bennett, Hammond; J. S. Harrison of Logansport; and Charles Harrison of Los Angeles. Four brothers and one sister are living, also two sisters having preceded her in death.

Mrs. Hartzog was a member of the First Christian Church of this city, and, until ill health prevented it, was a devoted attendant of all the church's services. Complete arrangements have not yet been made for the funeral. The plans are awaiting word from her son in Los Angeles, but it is probable that the services will be held Wednesday and the remains placed in a vault awaiting the arrival of her son before interment.

The Reverend H. W. Thompson of the Christian church will officiate and burial will take place at the Decatur Cemetery. Further arrangements for the funeral will be made... (the end not included)
