

Decatur Daily Democrat, Adams County, Indiana; Thursday, June 8, 1922

RAY HARVEY OF MONROE IS DEAD

Prominent Young Farmer is Victim of an Attack of Appendicitis

Monroe, Ind., June 8 - (Special to Daily Democrat) - Ray Harvey, age 30 years, died at the home of his father, John Harvey, one-half mile north of Monroe, at 3:30 o'clock Wednesday afternoon, following a short illness with appendicitis. Mr. Harvey was a very young farmer of the Monroe neighborhood and his death has cast a cloud of gloom over the community.

Mr. Harvey was stricken with appendicitis on last Friday, while at his home one mile north of Monroe. He was taken to his father's home on Saturday morning where he underwent an operation for gangreenous appendicitis. His condition was very serious at the time of the operation. Mr. Harvey was married three years ago. Recently he purchased the farm where he lived at the time of his death. He was a member of the Masonic lodge of Decatur. He is survived by his father and mother, and several brothers and sisters.

Funeral services will be held from the Methodist church in Monroe at 10 o'clock Friday morning, the Rev. Zechiel, officiating. The Masons will have charge of the funeral services. Burial will be held in the Decatur cemetery.