

Decatur Daily Democrat, Adams Co, IN; Friday, March 4, 1994

Clifford R. Hay, 609 N. 10th St., died in his residence at 6:40 p.m. Wednesday. He had been ill for one year.

A truck driver most of his life, Mr. Hay was a member of Teamsters Union Local 414, Fort Wayne. He was a World War II veteran (United States Army) and served in Europe.

Mr. Hay was born in Coldwater, Ohio on October 11, 1919 to Earl and Ocie May Yaney Hay. He married Vera "Beanie" Ellenberger on October 26, 1945 in Berne. She survives.

Other survivors include three daughters, Mrs Guy (Alanna) Myers, Decatur, Lou Ann "Rose" Neadstine, Monroeville; and Becky Hurst, Decatur; two brothers, Donald Hay, and Herbert "Nub" Hay, both of Coldwater; two sisters, Mrs. Ed (Luella) Leen and Mrs. Bill (Betty) Flesch, both of Dayton, Ohio; 11 grandchildren and two great-grandchildren. A brother, Harold "Sonny" Hay, and a sister, Dorothea Andrews, preceded him in death.

Funeral services are at 2 p.m. Monday in Zwick-Sefton & Jahn Funeral Home. Visiting hours are 12 noon until time of services Monday. Military honors will be given by American Legion Post 43. Memorials are to Adams County Home Health and the cancer society.