Mrs. Haynes Dies Monday

Mrs. I.R. Haynes Dies at Home of Sister in Monroe

Mrs. I.R. Haynes, 65, daughter of the late Howard Thompson, died at the home of her sister, Mrs. J.A. Hendricks at Monroe Monday evening at 6:45 o'clock. Death was caused by heart trouble and complications.

The deceased was born in Monroe Township, six miles south of Decatur, January 15, 1869, a daughter of Howard and Catherine Thompson. After graduating from high school at the age of 15, she taught school in the county for 10 years.

Because of ill health, Mrs. Haynes was forced to relinquish her teaching duties and spent 35 years in the northwest part of the United States and Canada. She was married to Mr. Haynes in Bradenton, Florida, January 21, 1937. She had made her home in Monroe for the past three years.

Surviving are the husband, two sisters, Mrs. Hendricks at Monroe; Mrs. Maude Dorwin of Decatur; and a brother, E Kirby Thompson of Van Wert, Ohio. One brother is deceased.

Mrs. Haynes was a member of the Monroe Methodist Episcopal Church and the Decatur Chapter of the Eastern Star.

Funeral services will be held at 9:30 o'clock Thursday morning, with Rev. Elbert Morford, pastor of the church, and Rev. H.H. Hocker of Pasadena, California officiating. Burial will be made in the Decatur Cemetery.
