

Decatur Daily Democrat (IN) - June 2, 2008

Bonnie M. Hendricks, 68, Decatur, died at 7:10 p.m. Friday in Adams Memorial Hospital after a long illness.

She was born in Fort Wayne on June 30, 1939, to James M. and Esther L. Winters Reed.

She worked at Woodcrest Retirement Community in Decatur from 1992 to 2007 in the office and in housekeeping.

Surviving are a son, Lloyd Hendricks Jr. of Decatur; six daughters, Mrs. Kevin (Brenda) Scherrer of Fort Wayne; Phyllis Hendricks of Spring Lake, North Carolina; and Beverly Reed, Mrs. Vernon (Marilyn) Clark, Mrs. Gary (Lorna) Clouse, and Vicki Hendricks, all of Decatur; two sisters, Mrs. Edgar (Opal) Freiburger of Ossian and Evelyn Watts of Decatur; a brother, Gene Reed of Monroeville; 21 grandchildren; four stepgrandchildren; and four great-grandchildren.

A brother and two sisters are deceased.

Zwick and Jahn Funeral Home, with burial in Decatur Cemetery.

Funeral services will be held at 2 p.m. Wednesday in chapel at Woodcrest (Porter Auditorium) and 2-4 and 6-8 p.m. Tuesday in the funeral home.

Preferred memorials are to the oncology department

Visiting hours are 9:30-10:30 a.m. Tuesday in the Adams Memorial Hospital.