

Decatur Daily Democrat (IN) - November 28, 2009

David L. Houck, 67, of Decatur, was found at home on Wednesday evening after having died unexpectedly of natural causes.

He was born on April 22, 1942, in Fort Wayne to George M. and Friedah C. Whitright Houck, who are deceased.

He was a toolmaker for Midwest Tool and Die, from which he retired in 2005 after a 40-year career. He was a graduate of Adams Central High School and, after high school, he served a four-year apprenticeship at the former CTS Corp. plant in Berne.

He was a life member the St. Marys-Blue Creek Conservation Club in Adams County.

Dave also was a private airplane pilot who owned an airplane. He was an avid shooter and collected guitars.

There are no survivors.

A funeral service will be held at noon on Monday in Zwick and Jahn Funeral Home, Decatur, with Rev. Todd Buckmaster officiating. Burial will be in Decatur Cemetery.

Visiting hours are 10 a.m.-noon Monday in the funeral home Preferred memorials are to the Adams County Community Foundation.