

Birmingham Eccentric (newspaper) dated January 31, 1952

D'ERVIN HOWER, 82, died at his home, 2136 Dorchester, on Jan. 24 after a long illness.

He was born in Decatur, Ind., on Nov. 30, 1869 and on Nov. 28, 1900, married Harriet Gilson in Rushville, Ind.

Mr. and Mrs. Hower came to Birmingham about two years ago from Muskegon, where he had operated a ladies apparel business for 34 years.

Besides his widow, he is survived by a daughter, Mrs. Bert E. Eubele, Jr., Bloomfield Hills; a son, Maxwell Hower, Birmingham; three sisters, Mrs. D. J. Harkless, Ft. Wayne; Mrs. John T. Meyers, Decatur and Mrs. Dan Beery, Fullerton, Calif.; a brother, the Rev. D'Ira Hower, Council Bluffs, Iowa.

The body was taken from the Manley Bailey funeral home to Decatur, where services and burial were Saturday morning.

Received from Baldwin Library, Birmingham, Oakland County, Michigan