

DONALD HOWER DIES SUDDENLY

Well Known Decatur Resident Is found Dead In Auto

Donald Dallas Hower, 37, well known resident of this city, was found dead in his automobile three miles from Gary Sunday evening at 8 o'clock.

The Lake county coroner has not yet returned a verdict as to the cause of the death, but it is believed to have been heart disease.

Mr. Hower was employed and traveled as a public accountant. Previously he had been associated in the management of the West End Restaurant and the West End grocery.

He was born in this city, November 9, 1900, the son of Dallas N. and Lucy A. Stalter-Hower. He was graduated from Decatur public high school and the International Business College in Fort Wayne. He was never married and had resided in Decatur all his life.

Surviving besides the father are the following brothers and sisters: Mrs. A. B. Ford, Muncie; Mrs. J. D. Dailey, Paulding, Ohio; Mrs. Ralston Sowers, Ridgeville; Chad, Decatur; Burton, Muskegon, Michigan, and Alton, Fort Wayne.

Funeral services are to be held Wednesday morning at 10 o'clock in the M. E. church here, of which he was a member. Burial will be made in the Decatur cemetery. The Rev. R. W. Gramh, pastor of the church, will officiate.

The body will be removed from the S. E. Black funeral home Tuesday afternoon and may be viewed at the home of his father, Dallas Hower, on 517 Monroe street, from 3 o'clock Tuesday afternoon until the time of the funeral.
