

MRS. NEVA HOWER DIES SUDDENLY

Former Decatur Lady Dies At Niagara Falls, While On A Tour

In a telephone conversation with C. C. Ernst, brother of Mrs. Charles Hower, late this afternoon, it was stated that Mrs. Hower died from an attack of acute indigestion, death occurring at about one fifteen yesterday. Funeral services will be held at 1:15 p.m. Sunday from the Hower home at Huntington, and the body will then be brought to Decatur, arriving here about three o'clock. Burial will be made in the Decatur cemetery and the casket will be opened at the grave and the remains may be viewed by friends.

Mrs. Charles Hower, age 43, of Huntington, formerly Miss Neva Ernst, of this city, died suddenly at 1:30 o'clock yesterday afternoon at Niagara Falls, New York, according to a telegram received here by relatives yesterday evening. The cause of the death has not been learned, although it is thought that gall stones were the cause, as Mrs. Hower had been suffering from that disease for some time. The body was being returned to Huntington this afternoon.

Mr. and Mrs. Hower and Mrs. C. H. Elzey, of this city, left Thursday, September 4, for a motor trip to Niagara Falls and other points in the East. The death of Mrs. Hower came as a shock to her relatives and friends here.

Mrs. Hower was a daughter of Titus and Harriet Ernst, and was born in Decatur, February 21, 1881. For the last five or six years Mr. and Mrs. Hower have resided in Huntington where Mr. Hower has been engaged in the wholesale tobacco business. No children had been born to Mr. and Mrs. Hower. Mrs. Hower is survived by three sisters, Mrs. Latta Annan, of this city, and Mrs. Mae Doehrman and Mrs. Ruth Lachot, of Fort Wayne, and two brothers, Charles Ernst, of Fort Wayne, and Carl Ernst, of Wisconsin.
