

Fort Wayne Journal Gazette, Allen Co, IN; 30 October 1989

Decatur: James M. Hunter, 64, died at 9 p.m. Saturday at Lutheran Hospital, Fort Wayne. He retired as an accountant at Prestress Services Inc. He was a World War II veteran. His first wife, Ruth, died in 1984. Surviving are his wife, Alice; a son, Jed A. of Monroe; two stepsons, Dick Harman of Decatur and Dan Harman of New Haven; three daughters, Camille Gillum of Marion, Ohio, Denice Smith of Plano, Texas, and Rene Hunter of Alpharetta, Ga.; three stepdaughters, Marilyn Heston of Decatur, Carolyn Stefanek of Fort Wayne and Connie Meyer of Hamilton Lake; a brother, John of Bluffton; two step-brothers, Maurice Teeple of Decatur and James E. Teeple of Monroe; seven grandchildren; and 15 step-grandchildren. Services at 11 a.m. Wednesday at Haggard & Armes Funeral Home. Calling from 2 to 5 and 7 to 9 p.m. Tuesday with Elks services at 8:45 p.m. and military graveside rites by American Legion Post 43. Burial in Decatur Cemetery. Memorials to American Heart Association or Cancer Society.