

CRASH NEAR DECATUR, IND. KILLS 2 MEN

DECATUR, Ind. - Two Indiana men died early Monday as the result of a near head-on crash on U.S. 27 at 1:11 a.m. about three miles north of Decatur.

Dead are Thomas G. Isch, 23, of Rt. 2, Decatur, and Keith Snyder, 53, of Columbia City, Ind.

Adams County Police said apparently Isch fell asleep at the wheel and crossed the center line into the path of Snyder's van-type truck.

Isch, for the past year, was plant manager of the Decatur Agriculture Center. Snyder was owner of Snyder's Cleaning Service and was on a regular route when the accident occurred.

Funeral services for Isch will be at 1:30 p.m. at the Zwick Funeral Home in Decatur. The body of Snyder is at the J. A. DeMoney & Son Funeral Home in Columbia City.

Contributed by Karin King