

Dalmus Janes, 65, died Wednesday at home. Born in Adair County, Ky., he worked at Yost Construction and was an equipment operator from 1980 until 1995 for the Decatur Street Department.

Surviving are his wife, Virginia; a daughter, Pamela Clem of Sturgis, Mich.; a son, Wayne of Sturgis; his mother, Ruth Janes of Horse Cave, Ky.; three sisters, Lorene Burks of Glogsgow, Ky., Pernie Furlong of Horse Cave, Ky., and Betty Johnson of Pequat Lakes, Minn.; and four grandchildren.

Services at 10:30 am Saturday at Zwick-Sefton & Jahn Funeral Home, Decatur. Calling from 2 to 5 and 7 to 9 pm Friday. Burial in Decatur Cemetery.

Memorials to Allen Home Health Care Hospice of Fort Wayne.

Fort Wayne Journal-Gazette (IN); Thursday, October 19, 1995, p. 3C

Contributed by Jim Cox