

Mrs. Greg Knittle Is Taken By Death

Mrs. Dortha Knittle, 55, wife of Gregg Knittle, of Union township, died suddenly of a heart attack at 12 noon Tuesday while visiting at the home of a daughter, Mrs. Michael Cole, in this city. Mrs. Knittle had been under a physician's care for a heart condition for some time, but her death was unexpected.

Born in Harrison township, Van Wert county, O., Aug. 11, 1907, she was a daughter of Carey and Cleona Miller-Brittson, and was married to Greg R. Knittle Dec. 24, 1924.

Mrs. Knittle was highly active in the Mt. Victory Untied Brethren church, and was a church class leader. She was also a member of the Ladies Aid of the church.

Surviving are her husband; three sons, the Rev. Carey G. Knittle of Decatur, Max Knittle of Chicago, and Lisle Knittle of Convoy, O., route 2; two daughters, Mrs. Dean (Rosanna) Plumley of Monroeville, route 2 and Mrs. Michael (Lucille) Cole of Decatur; 19 grandchildren; her step-mother, Mrs. Carey (Anna) Brittson of Fort Wayne; a grandmother, Mrs. Lulu Miller of Van Wert, O., and two stepsisters, Mrs. Beulah Burill of Cromwell, and Mrs. Victor (Josephine) Trim of Fort Wayne.

Funeral services will be conducted at 2 p.m. Friday at the Mt. Victory U. B. church, the Rev. Stanley Neuenschwander officiating. Burial will be in the Decatur cemetery. Friends may call at the Zwick funeral home after 7 pm. today until 11:30 a.m. Friday. The body will lie in state at the church from 12:30 p.m. Friday until time of the services. (Wed. Feb. 20, 1963)
