Mrs. Sanna Kunkel Dies This Morning 92-Year-Old Lady Dies Unexpectedly

Mrs. Sanna Kunkel, 92, lifelong resident of Root township and member of a pioneer family, died unexpectedly early this morning at her home, three miles north of Decatur on U.S. highway 27. She had been in fairly good health despite her advanced age and death was sudden.

She was born in Root township Dec. 10, 1863, a daughter of Sampson and Mary Jane Auten-Pillars. Her husband, Cal D. Kunkel, died in September, 1953.

Mrs. Kunkel was a member of the First Presbyterian church in this city and a charter member of the Home Demonstration club in Root township.

Surviving are one son, Sherman P. Kunkel, who resides on the same farm with his mother; one daughter, Mrs. Dale Moses, also of Root township; eight grandchildren and 20 great-grandchildren.

The body has been removed to the Zwick funeral home, where friends may call after 10 o'clock Sunday morning. Funeral services have been set tentatively for 2 p.m. Monday at the funeral home, the Rev. Ray J. Walther officiating. Burial will be in the Decatur cemetery.
