

Decatur Daily Democrat (IN) - July 7, 2008

Funeral services will be held at 10 a.m. Tuesday in Haggard and Sefton Funeral Home for Bryan W. Lehman, Decatur, who died Friday at the age of 70 at Golden Meadows. Burial will be in Decatur Cemetery. Visiting hours are 4-8 p.m. today.

Preferred memorials are to Golden Meadows Home, rural Decatur. He was born on November 27, 1928, in Decatur to Wesley H. and Arminda Bauman Lehman. He married Mary Davis; she is deceased.

Mr. Lehman worked at Walt's Motor Sales, the Phil L. Macklin Co., Don Shifferly Auto Sales, Strickler Auto Sales, and Central Soya, all in Decatur, and was a former member of Moose Lodge 1311 in Decatur. He was a member of Zion United Church of Christ in Decatur and, in recent years, attended Blue River Church of the Brethren at Columbia City.

Surviving are a brother, Deane K. Lehman of Decatur, and numerous nephews and nieces. A sister and his female companion are deceased.