

Decatur Daily Democrat, Adams Co, IN; Thursday, February 23, 1956

Ross J. Mallonee Dies This Morning
Funeral Services Saturday Afternoon

Ross J. Mallonee, 79, well known retired carpenter-contractor, and a lifelong resident of Decatur, died early this morning at the home of his son, Lyle Mallonee, 316 Stratton Way, where he had resided for the past several years.

He had been in failing health for the past two years but his death today was unexpected.

He was born in Decatur Aug. 31, 1874, a son of Joseph and Susan Dunafon-Mallonee. His wife, Myrtle, to whom he was married July 3, 1894, preceded him in death Aug. 24, 1942.

Mr. Mallonee was a member of the Decatur Elks lodge.

Survivors include the son; a granddaughter, Kathleen Mallonee, at home, and a sister, Mrs. Ella Teeter of Berne.

Funeral services will be conducted at 2 p.m. Saturday at the Zwick funeral home, the Rev. William C. Feller officiating. Burial will be in the Decatur cemetery. Friends may call at the funeral home after 2 p.m. Friday until time of the services.