

Newspaper clipping dated Thursday, February 18, 1937

DENTIST DIES

DR. BURT MANGOLD

Dr. Burt Mangold, prominent Decatur dentist, and a former president of the city school board, died Wednesday night at his home in this city after an extended illness. (PHOTO PROVIDED)

Adams County Historical Museum, 1937 Scrapbook

*****

Berne Witness, Adams County, Indiana; Friday, Feb. 19, 1937

DR. BURT MANGOLD DIES AT DECATUR

Prominent Decatur Man Dies After Extended Illness

Dr. Daniel Burt Mangold, 53, prominent Decatur dentist, died at his home at Decatur Wednesday night after a several months' illness of uremia.

Dr. Mangold, a dentist for more than 30 years, was active in civic and political organizations, and served for 12 years as a member of the Decatur school board, 11 of which he was president. He was active for many years in the Democratic party.

The deceased was a native of Decatur, a son of Mr. and Mrs. Noah Mangold, both of whom still reside there, and he was born August 18, 1883. He attended the Decatur public schools and graduated from Indiana dental school in Indianapolis in 1905. He married Nora Andrews May 8, 1907. No children were born to their union.

Surviving besides the widow and parents is one sister, Mrs. Herb Kern of Decatur. Private funeral services will be held at the home at 10:30 a.m. Saturday, with Rev. Kenneth Timmons officiating. Burial will be made in the Decatur cemetery.

Both contributed by Karin King