

Decatur Daily Democrat (IN) - October 8, 2009

Wanda Maxine Fry McLaughlin, 88, of Fort Wayne, died at 2 a.m. Wednesday in Kingston Care Center.

She was born on March 8, 1921, in Adams County to Grant J. and Lena M. Dellinger Fry.

She married James Earl McLaughlin, who has passed away.

Wanda was a graduate of Decatur High School and a homemaker.

Surviving are two daughters, Mrs. R. Michael (Judy) Frank of Fort Wayne and Jacqueline Hobday of Harrisburg, North Carolina; two son, Jerry McLaughlin (and wife Dawn) of Kingsley, Michigan and James McLaughlin of Manton, Michigan; and eight grandchildren.

A private family funeral service will be held later.

Preferred memorials are to the Alzheimer's Association of Greater Indiana and to Heartland Home Health Care and Hospice.

Arrangements were by Zwick and Jahn Funeral Home, Decatur.
