

Miss Susie Merryman Dies This Morning

Adams County Lady Found Dead Today

Miss Susie Merryman, 87, sister of the former Judge James T. Merryman, of this city, was found dead in bed at her home northwest of Monroe shortly before 8 o'clock this morning.

Miss Merryman had not been ailing and her death was unexpected. She and a brother, Zachariah, had made their home on the old Merryman homestead one mile north and town and one-half miles west of Monroe during their entire lives. The brother found her body this morning.

Coroner J. Jerome Yager was notified of her death and was to make an investigation to determine the exact cause later today.

Miss Merryman was born in Washington township on March 22, 1861, the daughter of Charles W. and Mary Ann Archbold Merryman. She was never married. She was a member of the Monroe Methodist church.

The two brothers, Judge Merryman of Decatur and Zachariah are the only near survivors. A sister, Eliza Jane, and two brothers, Johathan and Henry, preceded her in death.

The body was removed to the Zwick funeral home in this city this morning pending the completion of funeral arrangements.
