

FORMER LOCAL RESIDENT DIES

Mrs. Caroline Miller Dies Monday; Burial Here Wednesday

Mrs. Caroline Miller, 80, former resident of Decatur and Adams county, died at 4 o'clock Monday afternoon at the Home hospital in Fort Wayne, of infirmities of old age.

A native of Van Wert county, Ohio, Mrs. Miller lived south of Decatur for a number of years, and also lived in this city at the home of a daughter, Mrs. J. W. Mauller, until the latter's death three years ago.

Surviving are four children: Mrs. William Hachmeyer, John W. and Howard Miller, all of Fort Wayne; and Ralph Miller of Knoxville, Tennessee; 27 grandchildren and five great grandchildren.

The body may be viewed at the Scheumann funeral home in Fort Wayne this evening, and Wednesday morning will be removed to the Hachmeyer residence, 515 Colerick street, where funeral services will be held at 1 p.m. Wednesday, followed by services at the First Evangelical church in that city at 1:30. Rev. Dauner will officiate.

Burial will be made in the Decatur cemetery, where the body may be viewed before interment rites.
