MILLER FUNERAL THURSDAY

DECATUR, Ind. Oct 23 - The body of Ralph Miller, Decatur businessman who died in the United States Army camp at Pittsburgh, Pa., of pneumonia, arrived and was taken to the home of the father, Martin Miller, and family. The funeral will be held Thursday afternoon at 2:30 o'clock with an open-air service at the Decatur cemetery. The body was accompanied by the brother-in-law, Doyt McCrory, as military escort. The two enlisted together and were with each other since leaving here August 14. The body was also accompanied by the widow, Lucy McCrory Miller, and the mother, Mrs. Martin Miller, who left as soon as the message of his serious illness came, but who failed to arrive in time.
