

Obituaries

Harriett M. Mills, 76, prominent Decatur resident and a retired school teacher, died at 7:30 .p.m.. Friday in Lutheran Hospital, Fort Wayne, following an extended illness.

A member of the First United Methodist Church, Mrs. Mills also was a member of the Eastern Star, was a past president of the Research Club, a member of the DAR, and she taught Sunday School many years.

Mrs. Mills taught in the following schools: Luckey, Rennaker, and Brandyberry, all eight grades, and in the Pleasant Mills, Decatur, and Adams Central school systems.

She retired from teaching in 1964 after 25 years of service.

Born in Decatur on March 10, 1906, she was the daughter of John T. and Drusella Hower-Myers, and was united in marriage on Aug. 7, 1930, to Robert L. Mills; he survives.

Her late father was a local clothier for many years in Decatur.

Surviving, in addition to the husband, are one son, Daniel J. Mills, Wichita Falls, Tex.; three stepgrandchildren; and seven step great-grandchildren. One brother Herman, a former city attorney, preceded her in death.

Funeral services will be held Monday at 10 a.m. at the Winteregg-Linn & Haggard Funeral Home, with Rev. Philip Hillsamer officiating. Burial will be in the Decatur Cemetery. Friends may call at the funeral home from 2 to 5 and 7 to 9 p.m. Sunday. Preferred memorials are to the First United Methodist Church.