

Decatur Daily Democrat, Adams Co, IN, Friday, April 25, 1924

RALPH MOSER DIED YESTERDAY

Former Well Known Young Man of the City Died in Yankton, S. D.

Ralph Moser, age 32 years, former resident of Decatur and well known here, died at a hospital in Yankton, South Dakota, Thursday afternoon. Mr. Moser underwent three or four operations in an attempt to save his life. Death is believed to have been due to pleurisy.

Mr. Moser was a son of the late Mr. and Mrs. Elmer Moser. He was born in this city and lived here until about three years ago, when he moved to Yankton and became an instructor of music in Yankton College. His father was a photographer here and was well known. Ralph married Cecil Andrews, a daughter of Mrs. Agnes Andrews of this city, on October 29, 1919. A daughter, Patsy Jane, was born to Mr. and Mrs. Moser about two years ago. Mrs. Andrews and daughter Celia went to Yankton a week ago to be at Mr. Moser's bedside. Mr. Moser is survived by his wife and daughter and a number of distant relatives. The deceased was a member of the Methodist church.

The remains will be returned to Decatur for burial. They are expected to arrive in Decatur sometime Saturday afternoon. Funeral arrangements have not been made.