

Decatur Democrat, Adams County, IN; Thursday, January 18, 1900

Dee D. Mumma, for many years one of the most popular men of the city, died at an early hour on Wednesday of last week at McGill, Ohio. For many years he had been a sufferer from Bright's disease, and during the past few months had been confined to his home most of the time. He was thirty-six (sic) years of age and leaves a wife and three children to mourn his loss. Many other relatives and sincere friends in this city regret the loss of one whom they had learned to love and cherish. Funeral services were held at the Pleasant Grove church, east of Decatur, Thursday afternoon, conducted by Rev Culbertson, and the remains laid to rest at Maplewood cemetery, in this city.
