

ROBERT L. NYFFELER

DECATUR - Robert L. Nyffeler, 53, of Rt. 2, Decatur, died unexpectedly at 1 p.m. (EST) Monday at his home after suffering a coronary attack.

Mr. Nyffeler, a material specialist at General Electric Co. in Decatur had been employed by the company for 26 years, and was a member of its Quarter-Century Club.

Active in church affairs, he presently was a trustee of the Zion Lutheran Church of which he was a member. Mr. Nyffeler also belonged to the American Legion and the Veterans of Foreign Wars.

Born June 19, 1915 in Root Township, Adams County, Ind., he was the son of Charles and Fanny (Dutcher) Nyffeler.

Survivors include his widow, the former Velma Hoffmann, whom he married Feb. 3, 1946; two brothers, Kenneth W. of Rt. 5, Decatur and Sherman W. of Rt. 1, Middle Point, and a sister, Mrs. Harry (Naomi) Garwood of Van Wert.

Services will be at 10:30 a.m. (EST) Thursday in the Zwick Funeral Home, Decatur, and at 11 a.m. (EST) at the Zion Lutheran Church, with the Rev. Richard C. Ludwig officiating.

Burial will be in the Decatur Cemetery, with graveside services to be conducted by the American Legion.

Friends may call after 7 p.m. today at the funeral home.