

Decatur Daily Democrat, Adams Co, IN; Thursday, May 29, 1975

Catherine Marie Ogg, 67, 504 Niblick St., died at 11:08 p.m. Wednesday in Fort Wayne Lutheran Hospital following a brief illness. A homemaker, Mrs. Ogg was a member of the Presbyterian Church in Decatur, the Ruth Circle, senior citizens organization, Home Demonstration club and the Women's Association.

Born May 28, 1808 (sic) in Vincennes to Paris and Clara Core-Snyder, she was married on July 17, 1954 to Woodson G. Ogg of Decatur, who survives. Also surviving are two daughters, Mrs. Robert (Babette) Myers of route 1, Keystone, and Mrs. William E. (Joan) Jones of Gas City; one stepdaughter, Mrs. Bed (sic) (Ella Fay) Gibson of North Benton, O.; two stepsons, Richard and Max Ogg, both of route 6, Decatur; seven grandchildren; 13 stepgrandchildren and five stepgreat-grandchildren.

Funeral services will be held at 10:30 a.m. Saturday at Winteregg-Linn & Haggard Funeral Home, Rev. Robert Vander Hart in charge. Burial will be in the Decatur Cemetery. Friends may call at the funeral home after 2 p.m. Friday.