

George W. Ogg Dies Here Sunday Morning
Funeral Services to Be Held Wednesday

George W. Ogg, 85, a retired carpenter, died at 10:30 o'clock Sunday morning at his home, 307 South Seventh street, following a year's illness of carcinoma.

He was born in Bluffton January 30, 1860, the son of Jonathan and Susan Conner-Ogg. He was married to Mrs. Ida Womack in Kentucky August 20, 1894. They had resided in Decatur for the past 26 years, and celebrated their golden wedding anniversary last August.

He was a member of the First Baptist church.

Surviving are the wife, three daughters, Mrs. Rufus Roop and Mrs. Lawrence Kohne, both of Decatur, and Mrs. Lawrence Potts of Fort Wayne; one son, Woodson Ogg of Decatur; 18 grandchildren and six great-grandchildren. One daughter, two sons and one sister are deceased.

Funeral services will be held at 2 p.m. Wednesday at the home and at 2:30 o'clock at the First Baptist church, with the Rev. Albert Swenson of Wren, O., officiating. Burial will be in the Decatur Cemetery. The body will be removed from the Black funeral home to the residence this afternoon and friends may call after 7 p.m.
