

Bluffton News Banner, Wells County, Indiana; Tuesday, Jan. 19, 1960

Chauncy Oliver Rites Thursday

Chauncy L. Oliver, 72, of 706 Clark Ave., died at 4:15 p.m. Monday at the Clinic Hospital where he had been a patient three days. Death was attributed to pneumonia and a heart ailment.

He was born Mar. 7, 1877 [sic], in Adams County to Marion L. and Ellen Wisner Oliver. His marriage on Nov. 9, 1907, at Decatur was to Martha Buckmaster, who survives.

A resident of Wells County 50 years, he operated the Oliver Insurance Co. here for the last 25 years. Before going into the insurance business, Mr. Oliver was in the circulation department of the News-Sentinel at Fort Wayne for 15 years.

He was a member of the Methodist Church.

Surviving, in addition to the wife, are a daughter, Mrs. Raymond (Margaret) Mosure of Bluffton; three grandchildren and 16 great-grandchildren.

Two children died in infancy, and two brothers are deceased.

Friends may call after 7 p.m. today at the Goodwin Funeral Home.

Services will be conducted at 2 p.m. Thursday at the funeral home. Rev. Arleon Kelley will officiate and burial will be in the Decatur Cemetery.