

Heart Attack Fatal To Retired Farmer

John W. Parrish, 86, well known retired farmer of Kirkland township, residing four miles northwest of Monroe, died unexpectedly at 4:15 o'clock Wednesday afternoon at the Adams county memorial hospital. Mr. Parrish, who had not been ill, suffered a heart attack and died shortly after arrival at the hospital.

He was born in Washington township June 21, 1873, a son of Joseph and Nancy Jane Smith-Parrish, and was a lifelong resident of Washington and Kirkland townships. He was married to Dollie C. Bright Sept. 2, 1903.

Mr. Parrish was a member of the Trinity Evangelical United Brethren church.

Surviving in addition to his wife are two sons, Kenneth L. Parrish of Blue Creek township, and Kermeth Parrish of Washington township; two daughters, Mrs. Paul (Geraldine) McAhren of Decatur, and Mrs. Walter (Juanita) Lengerich of Washington township; 10 grandchildren; nine great-grandchildren, and one sister, Mrs. Jason (Maggie) Essex of Almyra, Ark. Three daughters and five brothers are deceased.

Funeral services will be conducted at 2 p.m. Saturday at the Trinity Evangelical United Brethren church, the Rev. J. O. Penrod officiating. Burial will be in the Decatur cemetery. Friends may call at the Zwick funeral home after 7 o'clock this evening. The body will lie in state at the church from 12 noon Saturday until time of the services.