

Decatur Daily Democrat, Adams Co, IN; Monday, November 25, 1940

DEATH CLAIMS MIRANDA MOORE

Former Adams County Resident Dies This Morning in Kokomo

Miranda Q. Moore, 84, a resident of Adams county until three years ago, died this morning at the home of a niece, Mrs. George Heaton at Kokomo.

The deceased was born in Adams county, the daughter of John and Rachel Andrews-Barnhart (sic; should be Barnett). Her husband Theodore preceded her in death as did two sisters and a brother.

Surviving besides Mrs. Heaton are two other nieces, Mrs. Charles Young of Yorktown and Mrs. Carl Fry of Swazee, and a nephew, John Barnhart of Kansas City, Missouri

She was a member of the First Methodist church here. She had resided in this county her entire life until three years ago when she went to Kokomo to make her home with the niece. She had been ill since last Friday.

Funeral services will be held at the Black funeral home Wednesday afternoon at 1:30 o'clock, with Rev. R. W. Graham officiating, and burial will be in the Decatur cemetery. The body may be viewed at the funeral home after 7 p.m. today until time for the services.