OBITUARY (Local Newspaper): Daniel Railing one of the best known residents of the city and a pioneer of Adams County died Saturday, 13 Feb 1915 at the home of daughter, Mrs. John W. Vail, on Madison St. at which place he had been making his home for the past several years. Daniel had been seriously ill for the past two months, but improved so that he was able to sit up for a little while yesterday (12 Feb). This morning (13 Feb) his condition took a sudden change for the worse and continued to decline until death came at 2:30 PM.
