FRANK C. RAILING, a well-known paper hanger and decorator, who, until recently conducted a wallpaper store at 224 South Main Street, died at that place shortly after 8 o'clock this morning, death occurring very suddenly and resulting, it is believed from an attack of heart trouble. Mr. Railing had been in declining health for about four months, but was still able to be about, and this morning walked into Myers and Johns' grocery and conversed for a short time with persons about the store. He suddenly became very ill, and requested to be taken to his former place of business, now the office of Blume and Blume, agents for the Harrison Mutual Burial Association.

He was removed in a carriage to the place designated, and a few minutes later, expired.

The deceased was 53 years of age and is survived by three sons and one daughter. The latter is Mrs. O. E. Bennett, of East High Street, this city, and the sons are Claude Railing of Iona, Mich., Charles Railing of Decatur, Ind., and Tom Railing, the well-known baseball player of Decatur, Ind.

The remains will be taken to Decatur for burial but arrangements for the funeral have not been completed.
