

Decatur Daily Democrat, Adams County, Indiana; Dec 12, 2008

Helen L. Railing, 85, of Decatur, passed away at her residence on Thursday, December 11, 2008.

Helen was born on December 16, 1922, in Adams County, Indiana to the late Arthur A. and Iva (Spade) Kelly.

She married Morton A. Railing on June 28, 1947, and he passed away on September 30, 1970.

Helen was a member of St. Mark's United Methodist Church in Decatur. She was involved with the American Legion Auxiliary, volunteered for Red Cross bloodmobiles, and was an avid supporter of the Humane Society and Native American associations.

She was a homemaker and worked for Flitner's Bakery, General Electric and Niblick's in Decatur, and also worked for Lerner's and J. C. Penney in Fort Wayne.

She is survived by three daughters, Candace Railing and Melody Railing of Decatur and Tamara (Jeff) Edwards of Albany, Indiana; one aunt Velma "Libby" (Leonard) Liechty of Jimmerson Lake, rural Angola; and several cousins.

Funeral services will be held on Saturday, December 13, 2008, at 1 p.m. at Haggard and Sefton Funeral Home, Decatur, with Rev. Jeff Taylor officiating.

Calling hours are 10 a.m.-1 p.m. Saturday at the funeral home.

Burial will be in Decatur Cemetery Memorial contributions are to Family Hospice and Palliative Care of Northeast Indiana at Berne or WAVE.

Transportation through Adams Memorial Hospital.