DEATH CLAIMS JOHN REITER
Native of Decatur Dies At Bluffton
To Be Buried Here

John Reiter, 66, former Decatur resident, died at his home at 222 East South street in Bluffton, at 9 o'clock Thursday night after a short illness of heart trouble. He had been in poor health for several years but his condition became serious only a few days ago.

The deceased was born in Decatur, October 17, 1868, a son of William and Mary Jane Niblick-Reiter. He married Edna Van Tilburg at Portland October 18, 1899. While a resident of Decatur, the deceased followed the barber trade, leaving this city many years ago. He was a charter member of the Decatur B. P. O. Elks.

Surviving are the widow, one daughter, Mary Jane, at home; and two brothers, Henry C. of Ft. Wayne and William of Palm Beach, Fla. One son, Richard, is deceased.

Funeral services will be held at the residence at 2 p.m. Sunday, with the Rev. P. B. Smith, pastor of the Bluffton M. E. church, officiating. Burial will be made in the Decatur cemetery.
