

Van Wert Times Bulletin, Van Wert County, Ohio; Tuesday, March 21, 1972

MRS. EDNA ROUGHIA

DECATUR, Ind. - Mrs. Edna Roughia, 75, of Decatur, former resident of Van Wert County, died at 8:30 p.m. Monday at the Adams County Memorial Hospital in Decatur, five hours after she was admitted.

Mrs. Roughia was a native of Harrisonburg, Va., and lived in Illinois before moving to Van Wert County.

Surviving are her husband Glen; three daughters, Dorothy Markle of Monroe, Ind., Pauline Moses of near Decatur and Geraldine Sprunger of Decatur; two sons, Leonard of Adams County and Arnold of Decatur; 17 grandchildren; 19 great-grandchildren; one brother and a sister.

Mrs. Roughia was also a relative of L. E. Kanney of Rt. 5.

Funeral services will be at 1:30 p.m. Thursday at the Union Chapel Church of the Brethren in Decatur.

Friends may call at the Zwick Funeral Home in Decatur after 7 p.m. today.

Contributed by Karin King