

News-Sentinel, The (Fort Wayne, IN) - Sunday, July 13, 2008

Columbia City IN United States

WILMA V. (RUTHERFORD) RODOCKER-SCHAMERLOH, 85, of Columbia City, passed away Sunday, July 6, 2008, 5:35 a.m., due to a stroke. Born Sept. 9, 1922, in Huntington County, she was the daughter of the late William Henry Rutherford and Mary Forney (Pugh) Rutherford. She attended Spencerville High School, Spencerville, Ind. She spent her lifetime in Huntington and DeKalb Counties, Hicksville, Ohio, Fort Wayne, and the past five years at Miller's Merry Manor, Columbia City. She was a seamstress and drapery maker. She volunteered at the Allen County Public Library in the Genealogy Department. Survivors include her son, Robert C. (Nina) Rodocker of Columbia City; daughter, Carma J. Lucatero of Denver, Colo.; sisters, Nona R. (Harold) Harris of Huntington, and Lou Ann Brown of Richmond, Va.; brother, Thomas N. (LuAnn) Rutherford of New Haven; seven grandchildren; and 17 great-grandchildren. She was also preceded in death by her husbands, William Rodocker and Arthur Schamerloh; sister, Lois F. Fisher; and brother, William H. Rutherford. Graveside service is 11 a.m. Tuesday, Sept. 9, 2008, at Decatur Cemetery, Decatur, with the Reverend Michael Courtney officiating. Memorial bequests may be given to Gideon's International or Lighthouse Free Methodist Building Fund. Arrangements by DeMoney-Grimes Countryside Park Funeral Home, Columbia City.

~~~~~

Decatur Daily Democrat (IN) - Tuesday, July 15, 2008

Wilma V. Schamerloh, 85, of Columbia City, Indiana, died there of a stroke on July 6. Among survivors are one son, one daughter, two sisters, and one brother.

She was married twice, but both husbands are deceased: William Rodocker and Arthur Schamerloh, who was from Decatur.

There will be a graveside funeral service at 11 a.m. on Tuesday, September 9, in Decatur Cemetery.