

Adams County Man is Suicide

(Special to the Journal-Gazette)

Decatur - Oct 21: George W. Scheiderer, 45, committed suicide at 5:45 pm today by shooting himself with a 12-gauge shotgun at his home in Root Township, five miles northeast of this city. He received the full discharge of the gun in the head.

The shooting occurred in the kitchen of his home while other members of his family were outside the house. No motive for his act was known. L. L. Yager, of Berne, acting coroner of Adams County, said his verdict would be suicide.

The body was brought to the Zwick Funeral Home here. Funeral arrangements are incomplete.

Surviving is the widow, Mrs. Viola Dyer Scheiderer and two sons, Arthur and Fred at home.
