

Mrs. Simcoke Died Friday

Decatur Lady Expired Following Illness of More Than Two Years

Mrs. Adaline Hendricks Simcoke, age 77 years, died at her home on South First Street at 3:30 o'clock yesterday afternoon following an illness of more than two years duration with a chronic ailment incident to old age.

Mrs. Simcoke was the daughter of Bazzel and Catherine Hendricks, and was born in Harrison County, Ohio January 14, 1846. She came to Indiana with her parents when she was two and one-half years old. When Mrs. Simcoke was ten years old her mother died.

She was married to V.B. Simcoke who died in 1897. In 1878 Mr. and Mrs. Simcoke moved to Monroe where they lived until Mr. Simcoke's death. Mrs. Simcoke came to Decatur to live in 1898 and has resided here practically ever since.

The following children survive: Charles M. Simcoke, of St. Louis, Missouri; Mrs. Henry D. Fuller of Hammond; Mrs. Frank P. Smith and Mrs. Catherine E. Kauffman, both of Decatur. Mrs. Simcoke is survived by the following brothers and sisters: Oliver T. Hendricks, John W. Hendricks, Jacob D. Hendricks, James A. Hendricks, and Mrs. Harriet Sells all of Monroe; Jane Hendricks of Decatur, and Mrs. Cranston Albaugh, of Dennison, Ohio.