

Decatur Daily Democrat, Decatur, Adams County, Indiana, Saturday, November 13, 1920

FUNERAL SUNDAY

Rev. Krider Will Officiate at Services for Mrs. Teeple at Monroe M. E. Church

BURIAL AT DECATUR

Was Eighty-eight Years Old -- Fell From Back Porch Two Weeks Ago

Funeral services for Mrs. George Teeple, whose death occurred yesterday afternoon at her home in Monroe, will be held Sunday afternoon at one o'clock from the Monroe Methodist church, the Rev. L. H. Krider officiating. Burial will be made in the Decatur cemetery.

Mrs. Teeple was born September 12, 1838, in Pennsylvania, a daughter of Aaron and Mary Duwaney Keller, and came to Adams county about the year 1873. She was first married to Jonathan Morrison, in Henry county, Ohio, who died a few years following the marriage. She was married a second time, the union being to John Reed, who is also deceased. A third marriage was to George Teeple, and he passed away four years ago this month. Mrs. Teeple lived in this city many years and at the time of her death held membership with the Decatur Methodist church. She is well known here where she had many friends. Mrs. Teeple lived alone at Monroe and two weeks ago fell down the cement steps from the back porch at her home, and although no bones were broken, the shock to her system was too great for her advanced age to withstand. During the last few days bronchial pneumonia developed. She was eighty-eight years and two months old. One brother, George W. Keller, of Monroe, survives.