

Fort Wayne News, Allen County, Indiana; Dec. 21, 1918

TWELVE-YEAR-OLD GIRL DEAD

DECATUR, Ind., Dec. 21 - Edna, aged twelve, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. John Thompson of North Ninth street died this morning at 9 o'clock following a three weeks illness of typhoid fever. Two brothers and a half brother, Dorse Stalter, conductor on the Fort Wayne Decatur interurban, survive. The younger brother, Raymond, has just recovered from a long siege of fever.

Contributed by Karin King