

Adams County Public Library (Decatur, IN) Obit Book D, image 29

Dated August 16, 1965

Herbert C. Braun Dies Monday

Word was received here Monday evening of the death in Sunny Meade, Calif., of Herbert C. Braun, 56, formerly of Decatur, by his mother-in-law, Mrs. Harry Young. Braun died in San Pedro hospital of a virus resulting from a mosquito bite.

Braun, a native of Decatur, was married July 18, 1942, to the former Dorothy Young, who survives. Three children also survive, Mrs. Larry (Carol) Dunbar, of Bloomington, David, at home and James, in service???

Funeral arrangements are pending and no further information could be obtained.

Decatur Public Library (IN) Obit Book D dated August 16, 1965

Funeral Friday For Herbert Braun

Funeral services for Herbert C. Braun, 56, of Sunnymede, Calif., who died suddenly Monday evening, will be held Friday at the Acheson-Graham Funeral Home, Riverside, Calif., with burial following in California.

A native of Adams county, he was born March 5, 1909, the son of Peter and Rose Anna Lichtle-Braun. He was married July 18, 1942 to Dorothy Young, who survives.

In addition to the children listed Tuesday, survivors include four brothers, living in Decatur; Nicholas, Bernard, Albert, and Herman; Daniel of Ossian; and three sisters, Mrs. Edwin (Florence) Kauffman and Mrs. Cornelius (Agnes) Geimer, of Decatur, and Mrs. Ben (Mayme) Lange, of Russells Point, O.

The Brauns lived at 12198 Graham street, Sunnymede, Calif.

Transcribed by Janice Vasilovski