

Vilas W. Feasel, founded insurance firm

Vilas "V. W." Feasel, 71, of Tempe, Ariz., died May 11 in Tempe.

Mr. Feasel, born in Adams County, was formerly of Fort Wayne. He founded Feasel's Inc., an insurance firm in Fort Wayne, and developed Feasel's Long Lake Sub-division at Coldwater, Mich. He also helped create the Fort Wayne Independent Agents Insurance Board.

Surviving are his wife, Golda R.; two daughters, Barbara Malchow of Tempe, and Betty Tyler White of Fort Wayne; a son Zale E. of Holiday Lakes; and two brothers, Marion of New Haven, and Heber of Decatur.

Interment will be in Willshire Cemetery in Willshire, Ohio.

Preferred memorials are gifts to the Allen County Society for Crippled Children and Adults or the Heart Association.

Decatur Daily Democrat, Adams County, Indiana; Wednesday, May 19, 1982

VILAS FEASEL

Vilas "V.W." Feasel, 71, Tempe, Ariz., a native of Adams County, died May 11 in Tempe.

He was formerly of Fort Wayne and founded Feasel's Inc., an insurance firm in Fort Wayne, and also developed Feasel's Long Lake subdivision at Coldwater, Mich. He also helped create the Fort Wayne Independent Agents Insurance Board.

Surviving are his wife, Golda R.; two daughters, Barbara Malchow, Tempe, and Betty Tyler White, Fort Wayne; a son, Zale E., Holiday Lakes; and two brothers, Marion, New Haven, and Heber, Decatur.

Internment will be in the Willshire (Ohio) Cemetery.

Preferred memorials are gifts to the Allen County Society for Crippled Children and Adults or the Heart Association.

Contributed by Karin King