

(Handwritten date: Monday, May 16, 1938)

DEATH TAKES ABE GILLIOM

Abraham Gilliom, age 84, brother of Simon Gilliom and Mrs. Sarah Soldner of this place, died late Wednesday afternoon at his home at Garden City, Mo., according to word received here by relatives.

The final rites were held there Saturday forenoon and those attending from here included Mrs. Sam Soldner, Mrs. Della Neuhauser, Kenneth Neuhauser, Miss Nora Soldner and Clifton Gilliom.

Mr. Gilliom's death was attributed to pneumonia. He suffered a fractured hip about a year ago on his way to a creek to go fishing and had been bedfast since that time. He was a retired farmer.

He was born February 11, 1854, in Wayne County, O., the son of Abraham and Anna Thut Hofstetter Gilliom. He was married twice, his first wife, Elizabeth Raber, passing away in 1895. His second wife, Mary Klopfenstein, survives.

Children surviving are Dan of Holden, Mo., Mrs. Frank Rohrer of Wadsworth, O., and Mrs. J. Russel (Etta) Davis of Detroit.

Two children preceding were Mrs. Rosa Rohrer and Menno.

Brothers and sisters surviving are Mrs. Sarah Soldner, Berne, Mrs. Elizabeth Raber, Versailles Mo., Simon of Berne, and Dan A. of Decatur. Two brothers, Christian and Peter and four in infancy, preceded.

Adams County Historical Museum, 1938 Scrapbook

Transcribed by Karin King