

Friday, February 13, 1942

Former Berne Man is Dead at Miami, Florida

Albert L. Neuenschwander, Who Learned Watch Making Here, Dies

Albert L. Neuenschwander, 70, of Miami, Florida, formerly of Berne and a native of this community, died at his residence in Miami it has been learned here. He died after a lingering illness. The funeral was held at Miami and burial was made there.

Mr. Neuenschwander was known as Miami's pioneer optician. He retired one year ago after 27 years in business in various locations in Miami. He was born in this community, a son of Mr. and Mrs. Isaac Neuenschwander. His mother was an Ellenberger.

Surviving are the widow, M. Bertha Neuenschwander, seven sons, Karl, Lawrence, Clarence, Wilbur, Russell, Ralph (cut off).

Adams County Historical Museum

Feb-Nov 1942 Scrapbook, image 45

Transcribed by Jim Cox