

Adams County (IN) Public Library Obit Book A, p. 8

Dated June 23, 1961

Remejia Randalez Is Taken By Death

Mrs. Remejia Randalez, 46, of 621 Schirmeyer street, died Friday at the Adams county memorial hospital. She had been ill for the past year and in critical condition for two weeks.

She was born in Bastrop county, Tex., Oct. 1, 1914, a daughter of Jae Y. and Theresa Rodriguez-Gil, and was married to Thomas Randalez Oct. 22, 1945

Mrs. Randalez was a member of Our Lady of Guadalupe Catholic church at Austin, Tex.

Surviving in addition to her husband are two daughters, Helen and Janie, at home; five brothers, Paul, Simon, Otis, Narsiso and Pete Gil, all of Austin, and two sisters, Mrs. Julia Astran and Mrs. Sally Sanchez, both of Austin.

The body had been removed from the Zwick funeral home to the Mission funeral home in Austin, Tex., for services and burial.

Transcribed by Janice Vasilovski