Mrs. Gideon Steiner Dies at Pandora

Mrs. Gideon Steiner, 74, died at her home in Pandora, Ohio, Wednesday morning according to word received by relatives here. Details of her death were not learned.

Mrs. Steiner was well known here and had many relatives in this community. She was a cousin of Homer Neaderhouser and Mrs. Nell Craig. Her husband, who died several years ago, was related to the Burkhalters here. She was a daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Dan Baumgartner and was born near Bluffton, Ohio.

Surviving are two sons and two daughters. They are Rev. Arman Steiner, pastor of the Pandora Missionary Church; Clayton Steiner, a missionary in South America and Olga and Mary Steiner, both of Pandora. One brother, Albert Baumgartner of Bluffton, Ohio survives.

The funeral will be held Saturday afternoon at 2 o'clock at the Pandora Missionary Church. Several local relatives are planning to attend the rites.
