

Thursday, January 19, 1939

Rites Monday For Accident Victim

Funeral services were held Monday for Mrs. Andy L. Yoder and son John, both of Nappanee, who were killed in a truck collision about three miles west of Topeka, last Thursday. In strict accord with the Amish faith, the largest home in the neighborhood was selected to hold the rites.

Mrs. Yoder and son were well-known by some local people and had relatives in this community.

Adams County Historical Society 1939 Scrapbook, Image 099 - Transcribed by Jim Cox