Clinton L. Carson, who being first duly sworn upon behalf of the plaintiff in the above entitled cause; that the plaintiff's cause of action herein is for money due on ~~account~~ account and a written contract for beer, cooperage, bottles, and cases, and horse feed from the defendant Harry Cordua, which ~~account~~ written contract and account is secured by a bond signed and he beleives that James E. Moser, Harry Cordua and Frank M. Trim are Separate answer of William Roop.

Harry Cordua
William Roop
Ludlow L.Sheline
Jonathan M.Andrews

The defendant herein William Roop for his separate answer to plaintiffs' complaint answers and says that he admit the signing execution and delivery of said bond herein sued on to the plaintiff on the 17th day of May 1906, but defendant says that in a few days afterwards the said plaintiff returned said bond to the said Harry Cordua and notified him the said Cordua that the said bond would not be accepted for the reason that the said sureties thereon including this defendant ~~waew-~~ were not the owners of any real-estate. That said Cordua notified said defendant that said bond was by said plaintiffs rejected That on the 26th day of June 1906 and long after the said plaintiff had rejected said bond the said plaintiff, without the knowledge consent or acquiescence of this defendant secured the name of the defendant herein Jonathan M.Andrews to said bond, and took said bond all without the knowledge, consent and acquiescence of said defendant and after they had rejected the same as aforesaid.

* That the bond sued on herein is not the bond of defendant Roop
That a copy of said bond is attached to said plaintiffs complaint and by reference thereto is it made a part of this separate answer as much so as if incorporated herein.

That this plaintiff had not sold any goods to the defendant Cordua or extended any credit to said Cordua whatever prior to said 26th day of June and prior to the time when they returned said bond to said defendant Cordua, but all of said credit was given to said Cordua after the said bond had been rejected as aforesaid.

Wherefore plaintiff ought not to recover as against this defendant

William Roop
