Robert Blosson
vs Clara Blosson } Complaint for Divorce

Robert Blosson plaintiff in this action complains of Clara Blosson the defendant in this action and says that the plaintiff and the defendant, were married at Adams County in the State of Indiana that at the time of entering into said Contract the plaintiff done the same in good faith and at all times performed his part of the marital relation in good faith but that the defendant did not perform her part of the marital relation in this in the Summer of 1862 the plaintiff enlisted into the Service of the United States in the 118th Regt of Ohio Vols. and left said defendant residing in said Adams County that he was absent from home three years in the service and while he was gone from home and had been absent from said Clara 15 months she had a bastard child that said child was begotten in adultery and not by the plaintiff and that

Said defendant has been guilty of numerous Acts of Aultery since he the plaintiff has been absent from home in the service of the United States That the plaintiff and defendant are now and both have been residents of Adams County in the State of Indiana for more than one year last past and the plaintiff asks and demands Judgment that the plaintiff be divorced from the defendant and said marriage be declared null and void.
